

The Collection

Your selection

Back to collections

Title

Hanger

Edged weapons

Repro ID: e1332

Actions

- Buy this image
- Add this to a collection
- Tags
- Share or embed this object
- Tweet

Please contact the Picture Library if you would like to use this record and image under licence.

Images

Images

Object details:

Object connections:

Object ID	WPN1266
Description	Hanger, which belonged to Lieutenant Amherst Morris (active 1793). There is a more detailed description of this hanger contained within the "Notebook" field within the "Mail" icon.
Date made	1768
Artist/Maker	Depe, Laurent
Place made	France
Credit	National Maritime Museum, Greenwich, London, Royal United Service Institution Collection
Materials	silver; wood; copper wire; silver wire; leather; steel
Measurements	Overall: 597 × 29 × 90 mm
Parts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hanger (WPN1266)
Help us	Do you know more about this? Share your knowledge

Collection	Edged weapons , Weapons
Gallery location	Not on display
People	Provenance: Prevost, Inspector Jean Jacques Provenance: Morris, Amherst Historical Association: Morris, Reverend M. C. F. : Royal United Service Institution : Washington, George
Vessels	Oiseau (1793) , Nymphé (1780)